DEDICATION

DR. DONALD MEYER

We are proud to dedicate the 1986 Cornucopia to Dr. Donald Meyer. Dr. Meyer first came to D.V.C. in 1947 after being in the Navy for 4 years. During the first 15 years here he was the only Dean and acted Second in Command under President James Work. Besides his Administrative duties he taught Freshman Orientation, Psychology, and History of Education. Dr. Meyer is very proud to have been part of the beginning creation of D.V.C..

In 1965, Dr. Meyer left D.V.C. to attain other goals. First, he went to Harrisburg to work for the New Commission of Higher Education of PA. While there, he held the positions of Acting Program Director and Director of Approval of New Colleges and Programs. In 1968, Dr. Meyer became Director of Community Services & Continuing Education, at the Commission for Higher Education in Connecticut. He received the Top State Director of the Country Award while in Connecticut. Later he moved to Washington to continue in that position. There he was primarily concerned with the use of Federal funds to encourage Collegiate Institutions to offer innovative programs and to cooperate with all segments of society. During this time, Dr. Meyer traveled through about 1/2 the states in the country, while also teaching graduate courses at the University of Puerto Rico on weekends.

After 15 years with the government, Dr. Meyer was asked to return to D.V.C. to teach Psychology as a full professor. Through his years here he has seen many changes and has helped many of them to occur. He has seen it rise above temporary set-backs, and seen it stay afloat through these many years. He is very proud to be part of this institution. During his years here he has received the Annual Student Gov't Faculty Award twice. This he feels is a special award because it comes from the students.

Dr. Meyer has had many other interests to fill his time. He was a Local & State Judge for Miss America, he enjoys painting, and has attended Art School. He was even a Lumberjack once. After this semester, Dr. Meyer will be retiring. He plans to move to New Hampshire and build his dream house overlooking a lake. During his retirement years Dr. Meyer plans on counseling, writing, and organizing Faculty Sharing Programs for Educational Institutions. Dr. Meyer has achieved many goals in his life. We, the students would like to thank him for sharing his experiences with us. Good Luck & Good Bye.

FOUNDERS DAY

A - DAY

This is what it's all about.

Which one is the animal?

What grace, what style!

I'd like to introduce my date!

Such dairy character

But Mom, I just took her for a walk!

I knew I shouldn't have partied last night!!

"Anybody have a fly swatter?"

I wish I knew what I was looking at!!

"Honey, I get a lot of male customers!"

Hope nobody sees me using my fingers!

"One violet, that's $204.23, miss!"

I need a glass of milk!

Snort . . . Snort . . . Gobble . . . Slurp!

AAH! A Monster!!

"Hey mister, are you interested in buying some nude mice?"

Smile for the camera. Good horsey.

How come I never get to ride?

Do you think somebody could bring me a milkshake?

"She says I can take the pony home- ok?"

"Hey, you guys want to see my goat?"

No more milkshakes today. Boy, that makes me mad!

I'll bury myself so I don't have to go home.

"I'm sorry I called you a bull. I should have checked first."

I knew I should have kept my bathing suit at school.

Well, I'm having a blast this A-Day!

Beautiful. Absolutely beautiful arrangements.

Sure, we'll cook something for you!

Alright, who took the keg out of the truck?

Thhhpppppt!

Wonder if I could leave real fast and grab a pork roll?

I'd like to answer that question, but my tongue seems to be stuck to my bottom lip.

"Who said I'm not cute?"

"I just can't seem to lift this soda off the counter."

"Hi doggie!"

"If you crank their tail, milk should come out."

"Baaaah!"

"This hair cut would be $39.95."

236 sold every half hour!

"You buy me some cotton candy and then we'll talk about it."

"Oink. What place did you get today?"

"Look at the line for milkshakes, Mom!"

It's miss-moo-moo.

When I grow up I'm going to DVC so I can be in charge of A-Day!
